

A Culinary Tale

A fun message about food waste
set to music for children to sing

Text and music by Judy Lane

A Culinary Tale

Mister Lettuce, he sat shivering,
He'd been in the fridge all day.
Left over from a salad lunch,
He feared he'd be thrown away.
On the shelf below sat Pasta Pete.
He feared the selfsame fate.
Together they hatched a cunning plot,
To end up on a plate.
The gifted pair both looked around
To see what they could make.
They voted for the perfect dish,
A delicious Pasta Bake.
Helped by onions, tomatoes and a slice of ham,
They jumped into a bowl.
They stirred around with a little cheese,
Some cabbage and a stale bread roll.
Can you believe the wondrous smell
That greeted a hungry four.
They hardly could believe their eyes
When they opened the oven door.
The lesson from this story, friends,
Is easy to relate.
Don't send your food to a landfill tip,
When it should be on your plate,
When it should be on your plate, on your plate.
