

Comments from Churches who have used 'Only Remembered' in their Remembrance Sunday services

John Fellows - Choirmaster at St Chad's Church - Pattingham commented

"At our first Mass, a soloist performed the hymn admirably..At our main Mass, 'Only Remembered' was sung by our church choir after the 2 minutes silence and we projected the words on our AV system together with some moving archive war film. ... we received some very nice comments from members of the congregation..."

Alec Unsworth, organist and choirmaster at St Gregory The Great - Northampton said

"Well, the music turned out to be a great success. ... I am sure we will again use this setting to those words. I am finding it difficult to get the tune out of my head."

This was Sandra Wyllie's comment after their Remembrance Service at Castlehill Parish Church.

"Our choir sang 'Only Remembered' at our Remembrance Service and it was very well received. Our congregation thought the words were so appropriate and the music matched the words so well which gave a very poignant feel to the singing.."

And more snippets from both the UK and USA

"....It sounds lilting and beautiful...."

"..I just played it through, words and music are beautiful..."

"...I like it very much..."

"...Charming music - I enjoyed the harmonies..."

".....I found Only Remembered both lilting and haunting - the music is so evocative...."
